

Bridlington Sunday 21st July

After last year's great success the day out in Bridlington is on again this year. Names are filling up fast on the list on the noticeboard, but there are still places for non-bowlers so don't miss out. The cost will be £13 to £15 depending on numbers.

All thriving as per program Still chance to add your attendance if you wish

Friday Social Evenings are proving to be a great success, with table bowls being the latest innovation. A thoroughly enjoyable evening was had by all and since it's not the winning but the taking part that matters, I feel it's best not to mention who was overall champion.

The social evening scheduled for the 8th February is cancelled because of the Karaoke night on the 9th, so the next one is Friday 22nd February

I finish with a note from Steve as now I'm off—I take my leave
Before I go, just one more time, please suffer this well-meaning rhyme
It's written here to wish you well. The stories I will have to tell
Of many people I have seen -thanks to Retford Bowling Green

Newsletter for Retford Bowling Green

February 2019

Dear Members

I'm writing this in the knowledge that this is my last newsletter for the club. Most of you will know by now that I am leaving the area and returning to my former home in Hertfordshire. I will take this opportunity to thank all members of the club who have made my stay here so memorable and enjoyable. I will certainly miss being here very much and I wish you all well in the future, I do hope that someone will take over the role of publicity officer for which this newsletter is an integral part. It is fun to produce, not as difficult to do as you may think and is very rewarding.

While my thoughts are geared towards moving, I'm sure yours will be beginning to stir towards the start of the forthcoming season and as usual there are a number of things that will need to be done in preparation for it. Please find here some notification of how you can lend your usual welcome support, not the least of which is attendance at the AGM.
